On Christmas night in 1776, George Washington and the Continental Army crossed the Delaware River and marched to Trenton, where they attacked and defeated the British forces. In 1912, this area became Washington Crossing State Park.